

Guidance and Instructions for opening Bank accounts with Dell preferred banks

Dell currently has four preferred banks as below. If you have an existing account with these banks, you can use the same to get your Dell salary credit. You will need to update your account details through the “Payment Election Task” which is part of your Workday Onboarding process.

- Citi Bank
- HDFC Bank
- ICICI Bank
- Axis Bank

Should you need to open an account with a Dell preferred bank, you will need to reach out to the contact given below and make the necessary arrangements to open an account. Once you have the account details, please update it through the “Payment Election Task” which is part of your Workday Onboarding process.
